Sermon Scripture: John 10:10 (GNT)

Message Title: He Came for You!

Current Context:

- Social media and reality television paint a flawed picture of how life and relationships are to be encountered, engaged, and experienced.
- As a result, we are witnessing a generation of people, across the age spectrum, who are living fake lives.
- In addition, you have chameleon Christians, whose identity changes depending on what day it is, what time it is, what crowd it is, or whether it is day or night.
- And the problem really is when you don't know that you are in a battle for who you are.
- You have to believe that the you that you were created to be, is better than you trying to be the me that I was called to be!
- The text says, in its original language, "I have come that you sheep, individually and collectively, might have life!" So if you are numbered with Christ's sheep, then He came so that you would be free to be you!

Relevant Question(s):

- How do I get free, so I can start to be the real me?

Sermon Observations:

1. Know your weaknesses!
2. Know your worth!
3. If you know your weaknesses, and know your worth, then you'll be able to live in your wealth!

Calvary Connection:

- Charlie Brown
- The Bible says that the Word became flesh and dwelled among us...He came for you! We were bound by sin and captured by the culture, but He came for you! He got up on that tree for you; He died on Friday for you; but early on Sunday morning, He got up for you! And since He came for you, then you ought to roll with Him!

Personal Reflection:

- Reflect on what about you is unique, peculiar, and special? What are the distinctive qualities God gave you when you were fearfully and wonderfully made? Do you live daily with the awareness that the Son of God came for you?
