Sermon Scripture: 1st Kings 18:15 – 18 (GNT)

Message Title: Go Make Some Waves!

Current/Scripture Context:

- Today we need a c_____ and conscientious Covenant community that is dedicated to making some w_____.
- A t_____ sees what is w_____ in the world; what's wrong in the c_____; what's wrong in the c_____, and they say, "I've got to trouble these w_____!"
- And God is r_____ a standard of people, who aren't interested in causing i_____ trouble or being in trouble, but who are s_____ out enough to make trouble for the troublemaking f_____ in the world!

Relevant Question:

- After I've been disturbed and disrupted to make trouble, what do I need to do in order for God to use me as a wave maker?

Sermon Observations:

1. You need to know your n_____!
2. Remember that your n_____ is connected to His N_____!

Calvary Connection:

- Since your name is connected to His Name, you don't have to be s_____ of anything, because Jesus already took the h_____ out of it! When Jesus died on the H_____, He took the heat out of it; He was dead on S_____ to take the heat out of it; but early on Sunday morning He got up because He was h_____ up to D_____...so go make w_____! Make waves against p_____; make waves against a_____; make waves against d_____; make waves to bring j_____; make waves to spread l_____; make waves to build h_____...let's go make some waves!

Personal Reflection: How do you/we become more effective than the forces of evil at making waves that lead to positive change and growth in our communities?
