Sermon Scripture: Matthew 28:18 – 20 (GNT)

Message Title: He's Always There!

Current/Scripture Context:

- While we rejoice in the fact that God is enough, the truth is that the p_____ of His p_____ does not insulate us or i_____ us from the pitfalls of life's p_____.
- We get s_____, sometimes, waiting for God to lead us through the door of f_____ and back into the land of p_____.
- We live in a world where the vulnerable are v_____; infections t_____; houses are d_____; and folks are d_____.
- But the good news is that God specializes in using what looks b_____ to be a b_____!
- And no matter what is going on, God wants you to know that He is with you and not a_____ you; He is f_____ and not n_____...that He is always t_____ when you need Him!
- Jesus, in the text, has the disciples u_____ attention and He looks them in the e_____ and tells them, "I've got All power!" And the One who has all p_____ is the One who is with you a_____!

Relevant Question:

- What does it really mean that God is always there with you and for you?

Sermon Observations:

Since God is always there:

1. You have a c_____!
2. You have been c_____!
3. You have been c_____!

Calvary Connection:

- At the Cross, Jesus s_____ you in! He s_____ on Friday; He s_____ on Saturday; and early on Sunday morning, He d_____ with all power! All you have to do is say, "I'm y_____!"

Personal Reflection: Does the knowledge that God is always with you provide you a source of support and comfort? How does that knowledge support you and comfort you?
