Sermon Scripture: Luke 19:1 – 10 (Good News Translation)

Message Title: Ain't No Can'ts in God!

Current/Scripture Context:

- This text brings to light some interesting c_____ about limitations.
- Zaccheus is limited by his h_____, occupation, and p_____ perception!
- Zaccheus recognizes, however, that he is m_____ something. Maybe what he is missing is the love and fellowship; the k_____ and brotherhood c_____ with another brother.
- And here comes Jesus, this guy he's h_____ about, and he realizes that we need to be n_____ and nourished by each other. He realizes that his v_____ and viability are tied to having f_____ with another brother.
- And the reality is that we all need b_____ who c_____ about us; who care about our well-being; care about our l_____; who love us; and s_____ in us what we cannot s_____ in ourselves.
- Brothers, though, sometimes get so caught up in l_____ life that we get limited by an obsession with s_____ maintenance above honoring h_____.
- But God, has g_____ news today...the truth is that ain't no can'ts in God, so l_____ cannot limit you!

Relevant Question(s):

- What does it mean to have no limits in God?

Sermon Observations:

Since there ain't no can'ts in God:

1. You are not l_____ by p_____ e_____ (s)!
2. You are not l_____ by p_____ o_____!
3. You are l_____ by God's p_____ p_____!

Calvary Connection:

- The reason there ain't no can'ts in God is because one day He sent His Son, Jesus in His N_____! One F_____ they thought they killed Jesus; they thought they b_____ Him on Calvary's hill! But early on Sunday morning, God r_____ Him and l_____ Him up!
