Sermon Scripture: Matthew 17:14 – 21 (Good News Translation)

Message Title: No False Advertising!

Current/Scripture Context:

- This great nation in which we live is f_____ guilty of false advertising!
- The flip side, though, is that some of us have been g_____ of false advertising ourselves.
- God, though gives a r_____ for false advertising. A s_____ that has been the same through the ages... God's solution is, just be r_____!
- The problem of the d_____ in the text is this problem of false advertising.
- This brother comes up with his s_____ son and says to Jesus that your boys couldn't do anything to h_____ me.
- They l_____ like they could do it; they s_____ like they could do it, but they were just p_____ representations of your power... false advertising!
- Maybe, though, God was teaching the disciples a lesson, because they were starting to get a_____. Maybe they needed to be reminded that it's not by p_____, nor by m_____, but by God's S_____! No false advertising!

Relevant Question(s):

- How do we avoid false advertising? How does the church prevent false advertising so that the folks who are depending on us for hope and inspiration, won't leave shouting that we are guilty of false advertising?

Sermon Observations:

1. Make sure you're a_____ matches your a_____!
2. Make sure you're a_____ are fueled by your a_____!

Calvary Connection:

- You don't have to do false advertising because a l_____ time ago, the Father sent in His Son with r_____! On Friday it looked like f_____ advertising; on Saturday it looked like the mission had f_____; but early on Sunday morning Jesus advertising m_____ His actions: Destroy this t_____ and in three days it will be r_____!
