Sermon Scripture: Romans 7:18 – 25 (Good News Translation)

Message Title: Ready for Action!

Scripture Context:

- Paul is writing to a m_____ and highly m_____ people who were having trouble understanding how they could have such a love for God and still find themselves trapped in the bonds of sin. They were struggling with how you can l_____ God, but still lose the war within your own life or feel like others are imposing their internal struggles into external p_____ and p_____ for you.
- Paul says there is a w_____ going on in my members. It is a war between my “w_____ to” and my “w_____ do!”
- The answer to all of our internal and external f_____ has one answer...look to J_____!
- Some people have lost hope that Jesus offers a way to deal with the crucial issues that make your days desperate and depressing, but Jesus started a movement that was a technique of s_____ for those who are o_____. Wherever he shows up, you get new c_____, because Hell, hypocrisy, and h_____ have no d_____ over you and don't dictate who you are.

Relevant Question:

- In looking to Jesus, how do we make sure that we are ready for this battle between our flesh and our spirit?

Sermon Observations:

1. If you're going to be ready for this battle, you must follow the r_____, r_____, r_____ Christ!
2. If you're going to be ready for this battle, you must keep going a_____ and God will work out the s_____.
3. Lastly, if you're going to be ready for this battle, you must know that God can and will b_____ up my m_____ up.

Calvary Connection:

- A long time ago, Jesus blessed up my mess ups. He blessed up our s_____; blessed up our g_____. ...He went up the Via Dolorosa (The Way of G_____); up to Calvary's Hill; up on an old rugged C_____! And early on Sunday morning, He got up because the o_____ was predetermined. (If you destroy my life, in t_____ days it will be rebuilt).
