Sermon Scripture: Genesis 37:23 – 24 (Good News Translation)

Message Title: What Darkness Can't Do!

Current Context:

- It sometimes feels like it is d____. Minds are c____; h____ are hanging on by a thread; belief is f____...it feels dark.
- But the good news is that there's just some stuff that d____ can't do.
- Darkness can't hide the t____; darkness can't stop God's I____ from moving on your behalf...there's just some stuff that darkness can't do!
- In the text, we meet a young man named J____. Life was g____ for young Joe.
- Young Joe, though found himself in a dark, d____ situation. He was the victim of "all of a s____."
- Joseph was put in a pit to s____ him, but even in the pit you have w____ to do!
- The good news is that darkness occupies a temporary t____ and morning by morning new m____ I see!
- You might not be able to w____ at night, but you can be a w____ even at night!

Relevant Question:

- What is it that darkness can't do?

Sermon Observations:

1. Darkness can't stop you from d____!
2. Darkness can't stop you from being d____.
3. Darkness can't stop your d____!

Calvary Connection:

- Jesus d____ that you would reconnect with the FATHER; He dreamed that you would do g____ works; He dreamed that you would love your n____; and dreamed that you would be s____! So He drove through 42 g____; He was driven to w____ with God; driven to die on F____; driven into a borrowed t____! It was dark all n____ Friday; dark all d____ Saturday, but He had another d____! Early on Sunday m____, he got up with all power...there was some stuff that darkness can't do!
